Hen's Night Quiz

The point of this quiz is to embarrass the Bride by getting her to tell the crowd all her little secrets. We are pretending that we have interviewed the Groom (find out his name) and quizzed him on all her naughty little secrets.

You will tell the Bride that you have the answers from the groom to all the following questions and that she needs to think like him if she is to survive the quiz. For every wrong answer she has to do a shot or take a drink.

1. Where did the couple first meet?
2. What is his favourite food?
3. What is his favourite animal?
4. What is his favourite movie line?
5. What is his job title?
6. What is his favourite hobby? (besides the bride to be that is!)
7. If he could be a super hero which super hero would he be?
8. List the things that you would find in his wallet?
